over their good showing in the first round very well satisfied with the way they are going with them, even though they are not the favorite in the game of the week with the New York Yankees, but they leave for home, stepping out of evidence to play Jimmy Collins and his team. They will play on Sunday night ready for the big game on Monday, when they play the Brooklyn Club on the Hamilton Avenue ground.

Another thing that is worrying the players is the fact that they are not getting much money for their services. The swats are struggling in their efforts to get the money they are owed. Sanchez, McConell Stahl and Smith are back and are asking for $100 each. Maybe they are asking for too much.

They are back to Boston, where they will play the Red Sox to get today and will put the defeat of yesterday behind them. They are feeling uncomfortable when he begins to tell them. He said a few things that they are not liking. They are determining their manner when they took the

U. S. CRUISER SENT TO GUARD AMERICANS

AMOIY, China, April 10.—The American cruiser Cleveland of the Asiatic fleet was to-day ordered to Hankow because of the anti-foreign riots at Chang Sha.

FURTHER OUTBREAKS

The day saw the British gunboats ordered to attack Chang Sha to quell native riots against the missionaries arrived there this morning and immediately sent out landing parties. The natives made no effectual resistance. It is reported. Some of the Europeans have gone to Hankow.

The commander-in-chief of the little fleet immediately demanded explanation from the Mandarin of the district. The rebels are reported to have pillaged a small village not far from Chang Sha.

800 STRIKE ON THE NEW HAVEN

A strike among the section men of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad began to-day, and it was said that there might more than 800 men would be out. The section of the road between Boston and Providence is chiefly affected. The men want an increase in wages from $9 to $12.75 a day, with a reduction in hours from eleven to ten hours and a half day for Sunday work.

MISS VERNON 54 YEARS ON STAGE

In recognition of the fifty-fourth anniversary of her debut on the stage, which took place April 12, 1856, when the actress was but two years of age, Miss Ida Vernon, playing the role of Lady Crovon in "The Maid from the Mountains," at the Boston theatre, was given an enthusiastic reception by the management, members of the company and the audience. Many flowers were showered upon her, and a handsome floral basket was the tribute from Elsie & Co. In response to certain calls, Miss Vernon had to give a little speech. Miss Vernon made her first appearance on any stage in Boston, as Pearl Blossom in "Midnight on the Water" from Elsie & Co. in "Midnight on the Water."
